Dedication

We, the annual staff of 1963, take great pride in dedicating this year's issue to Mr. Clyde T. Gilley, who has given unselfishly a great deal of time and effort to make this a very memorable year.

His patience and good nature have attributed to our learning and understanding of journalism. We sincerely hope his memories of this year will be as favorable as ours.

In Memoriam

The Class of 1963 takes this opportunity to honor two former schoolmates. This page is dedicated in sympathy and friendship to their memory.

Although several years have passed since Ray Ditmar's death, the memory of his quiet smile and warm friendliness is still fresh. This year, which was to have been his graduation, his absence is especially felt.

Ed Hobson, "Mike" to his many friends, participated in football and numerous other school activities. His loss to us is keenly felt by all the students and teachers at DCHS.

Pep Assemblies

Pom-Pom Girls in Action

The Wolf (Janet Wier) races to Grandmother's (Lavon Pearce, seated) house through the woods (Gail Campbell and Jane Burgess, back to camera); Narrating: Bob Heaton.

The auctioneer, Bill Heaton, talks of the qualities of the beautiful slave girls. The bidding was fast and furious, as may well be imagined.

Fifty cents appears to be the price tag on the faculty slaves shown here.

Slave Day

Jan. 18 was Slave Day at DCHS. Though primarily a fund-raising activity, it is also "fun"-raising.

Throughout the day, masters could seldom be seen doing any work. Left, Fred LaPerriere finds a practical use for his slave, Vickie Wells. Right, Slave Williams watches Freemen Hier and Brown.

Metals Shop

The school board visited a metals workshop Jan. 9. The event was designed to display accomplishments of the students. Joe Allis and Ken Moyer use their "large and sinewy hands."

Modern Dance

Orchesis is in its first year at DCHS. An extracurricular activity, it is formed to teach and promote dance as an art medium among high school students.

October 19, 1962, was the second major dance program at DCHS. Numbers on the program included: "Jazz" from WEST SIDE STORY; BAREFOOT BALLERINA; "Steam Heat" from PAJAMA GAME; GERSHWIN PRELUDE; WILDCAT; and FANCY FREE.

STEAM HEAT: Vickie Wells, Karen Gordon, Marlene Fann.

Faye Reid in PRELUDE.

Hicks in Big City are: Carol Gammon, Alice Reynolds, Susan Richardson in comedy routine.

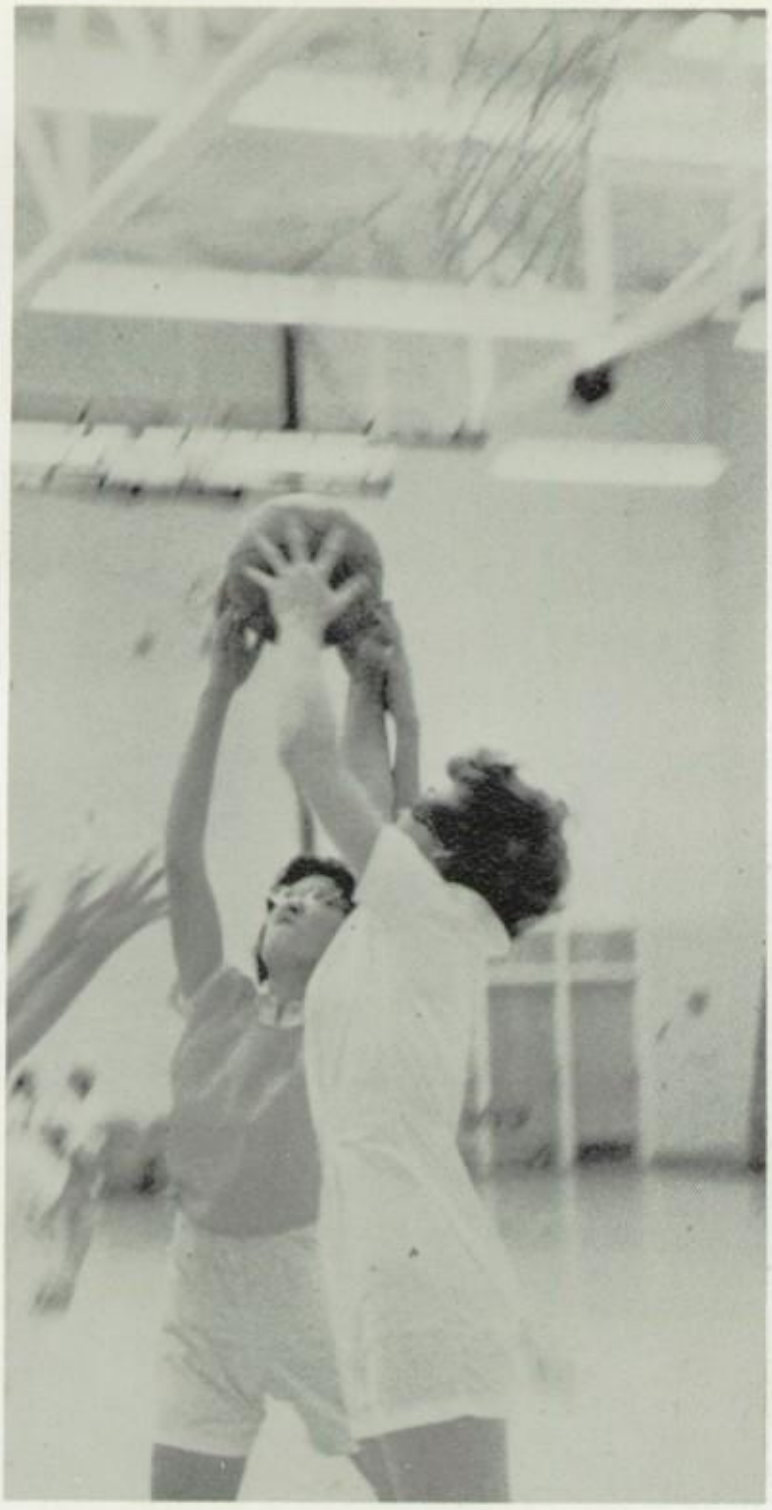
Girls' Basketball



Karen Hamblin and Margie Homrighausen tussle for ball.

Shelagh Hauck does a ballet step as ball disappears. Toni Hier, Jean Berry, and Robert Mojica watch.

Smith, Prescott, Johnson, Bailey, Ehmann (Ref.), Fann, Legler, Classen (Ref.), watch the bouncing ball.

Hughes, Hearther, and Homrighausen seem to have their sports confused.

Dance Band

One of the many musical activities offered at DCHS is the Dance Band. It gives students an opportunity to perform popular and swing music.

Winter Concert

One of the major musical productions of the year is the Winter Concert by the DCHS Band. Each year this event features a guest soloist who is an outstanding performer in the world of music. This year the program (Feb. 20) featured Mr. Richard Joiner, 1st Clarinet with the Denver Symphony Orchestra.

Mr. Richard Joiner was guest soloist at the program. He is shown here with the band.
